

Garry Roost trained at E15 Acting School and has extensive experience in television, theatre, film in both comedy and drama.

TV credits include: Creepy Guy in Blackbooks, Mickey Doolan Irish Jockey in At the Races sketch with Steve Coogan in The Day Today and Alan Daniels in Eastenders.

Garry has toured Pope Head: The Secret Life of Francis Bacon since the world premiere at Edinburgh Festival in 2014 including Sydney Mardi Gras 2015, Melbourne Fringe Festival 2017 and a sellout show for Gothenburg English Speaking Theatre in May 2017.

Pope Head was invited to play the opening night of the Francis Bacon exhibition in MoMA Dubrovnik, Croatia in December 2016. Which was a surreal moment playing Bacon surrounded by his drawings and pastels.

Garry recently enjoyed a world premiere of his new play Warhol: Bullet Karma at the Edinburgh Festival 2018 and performed Pope Head at The Ode for Life Art Festival 2018.