

WARHOL: BULLET KARMA 2018

Audience comments :

"Breath taking. Mr Roost captured the strange mix of arrogance and yet vulnerability in the Warhol persona as well as presenting well delineated vignettes of members of, and visitors to, 'The Factory'. "  - Pentameters Theatre Previews - 22nd July 2018

"This play was very well written and delivered. A one man play, Garry Roost playing a variety of roles by using props to switch character." - 21st July

" A very enjoyable solo piece, with an interesting story and great character acting." * - 20th July

"A fantastic show - must see at the fringe." Edinburgh Fringe Warhol Facebook page Audience review  6th Aug 2018

"Garry I really enjoyed the show today. It was the highlight of my fringe day!" Twitter audience comment 7th Aug 2018

"A tour de force..." 8th Aug

"Start of a long day at #edfringe with excellent @WarholBulletKar in the grassmarket. Great one man show..learnt tons." Twitter 20th Aug

"An edgy, gritty and compassionate portrayal that compels, educates and entertains. We were taken with Garry's performance at the 2018 Edinburgh fringe and highly recommend seeing his show." Facebook Warhol page 20th Aug

Reviews:

Pip Utton master of the self written solo monologue reviews WARHOL: BULLET KARMA for FringeReview Edinburgh 2018

Edinburgh International Festival and Fringe 2018 - Chapter Performance Philip Wyn Jones - "...a totally convincing Warhol..."

Professional comments:

Nick Steel CEO Bath Comedy Festival: "Brilliant. I would recommend it to anyone!" 21st Aug 2018

Ryan Alexander Dewar - Scottish Film/Theatre maker: "Inspirational... Honest, Real, Hopeful. Insightful. Witty. A vividly told journey of such a colourful icon."

John McCann - DUPed The Play - Edinburgh Fringe First 2018: "Beautiful play. Garry knocks it out of the park. Golden hour..."

Paul Levy - FringeReview: "An excellent show...a consummate performer."

Geoff Whiting - Mirth Control: " A great writer and performer...brought the characters to life so brilliantly."

Mr Twonkey of Twonkeyverse - Award Winning Comedian: " I thought it was brilliant!"